PROFILE SUMMARY

I am currently pursuing a BSc (Hons) in Computing and Information Systems at Sabaragamuwa University of Sri Lanka. As an undergraduate student with a strong foundation in software engineering, I am eager to apply my programming skills and theoretical knowledge to real-world scenarios. I am actively seeking an internship opportunity where I can gain hands-on experience, contribute to meaningful projects, and develop professionally within the tech industry. My academic background, coupled with my dedication to continuous learning and growth, makes me a keen and motivated candidate ready to take on new challenges.
